How did Jonah feel about being in Nineveh?

He wanted God to save it.

It was his favorite place to be.

He would have rather been anywhere else.

He thought it was super pretty.

oOPs!

Once Jonah told the people God's message he thought...

...that they would throw a party.

...that they would finally get what was coming to them, they would be destroyed.

SUPER

Woops! Try again.

Did God destroy Nineveh like Jonah wanted Him to?

No. The people confessed their sin so God showed them Mercy and forgave them.

Yes, but after a few weeks.

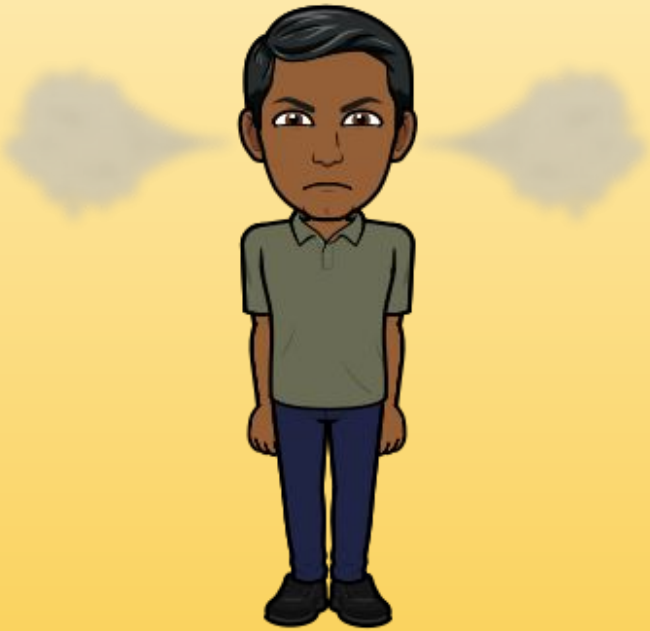
How did Jonah feel when he saw God's response?



He didn’t mind, he knew God knows best.

He was not happy at all. He was angry at God.

He was disappointed, but didn't care. He wanted to go home.

How did God show mercy to Jonah?

He made a plant grow where Jonah was siting to give shade.

He gave him what he wanted.

He didn’t, Jonah didn’t deserve mercy.

He sent the people of Nineveh to remind him.

YES!

NO

What happened the next morning?

GONE?

God punished Nineveh.

Nothing.

Jonah realized he was wrong to be angry.

God sent a worm that chewed up the plant.

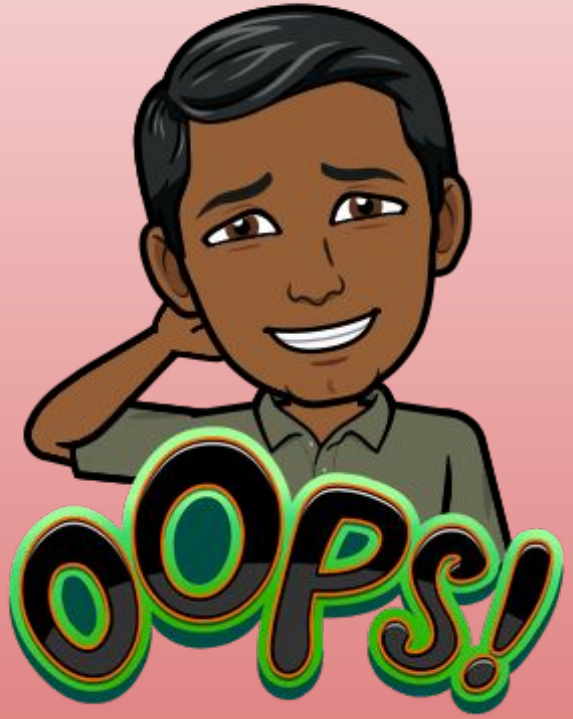
TRY AGAIN



oOPs!

Why did God send the plant, just for a day, and then take it away?

The people were no longer sorry.

Jonah didn't need it anymore.

He was showing Jonah what was most important to God.

WHY?
